BEAR ON A BIKE

Written by Stella Blackstone

Illustrated by Debbie Harter

Bear on a bike,
As happy as can be,
Where are you going, bear?
Please wait for me!

I'm going to the market,
Where fruit and flowers are sold,
Where people buy fresh oranges
And pots of marigold.

Bear on a raft,
As happy as can be,
Where are you going, bear?
Please wait for me!

I'm going to the forest,
Where fearsome creatures prowl,
Where raccoons play and bobcats snarl
And hungry foxes howl.

Bear in a steam train,
As happy as can be,
Where are you going, bear?
Please wait for me!

I'm going to the seaside,
Where children love to play,
Where young friends dig and race
And swim, while fishes dart away.

Bear on a boat,
As happy as can be,
Where are you going, bear?
Please wait for me!

I'm going to an island,
Where magic star fruits grow,
Where herons fish in secret groves
And sparkling rivers flow.

Bear in a carriage,
As happy as can be,
Where are you going, bear?
Please wait for me!

I'm going to a castle,
Where night is turned to day,
Where princes and princesses dance
And merry music plays.

Bear on a rocket,
Flying through the night,
Wherever you are going, bear,
Goodbye and goodnight!
