Dad—
jack-of-all-trades,
counselor and friend,
storyteller, comforter,
giant among
men.

Your loving hand
helped me to stand;
your guiding force
helped aim my course;
your gentle smile,
all the while,
helped make me
who I am.

I Celebrate you

One of the things I appreciate most about you, Dad, is...

DAD

Memories,
wisdom, and
knowledge to share,
your unending
love is always
there.

Eyes of understanding,
heart of patience
and love,
hands of comfort
and compassion,
blessed by God above.

I love you
Dad!

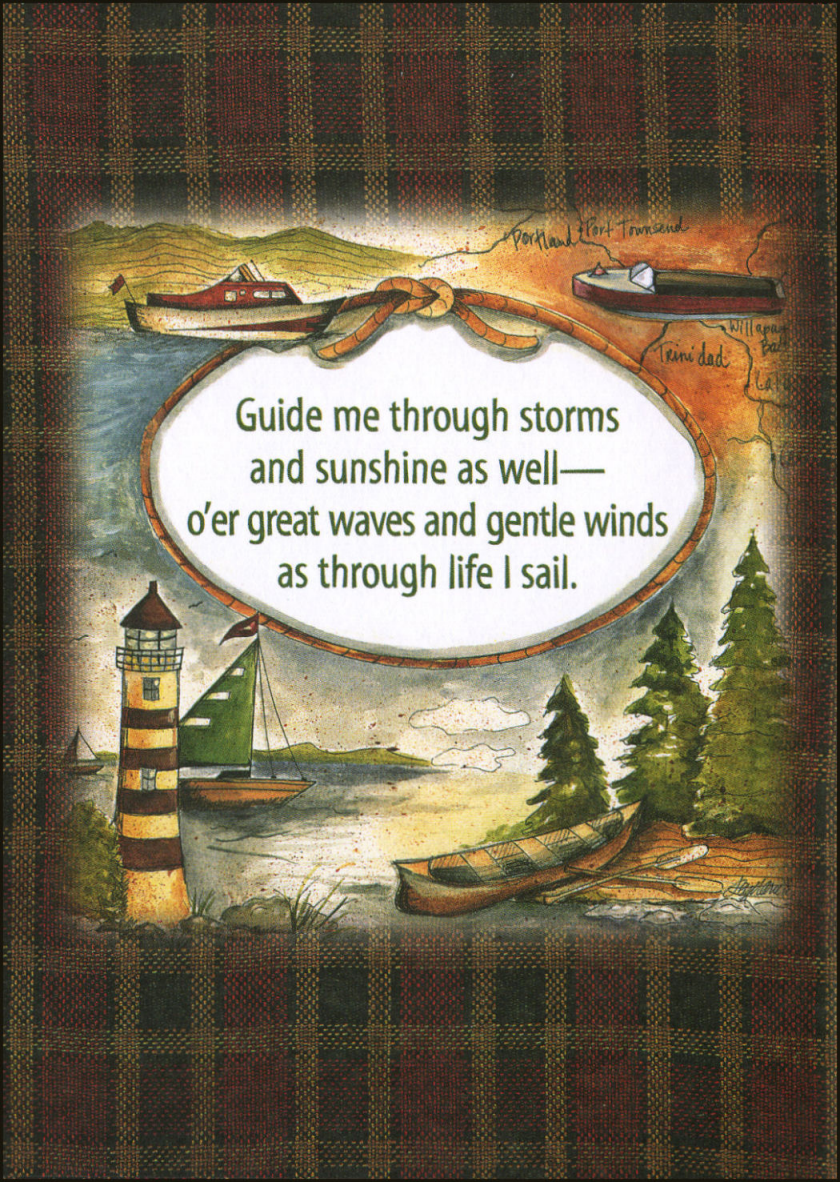

Celebrate Your Honor

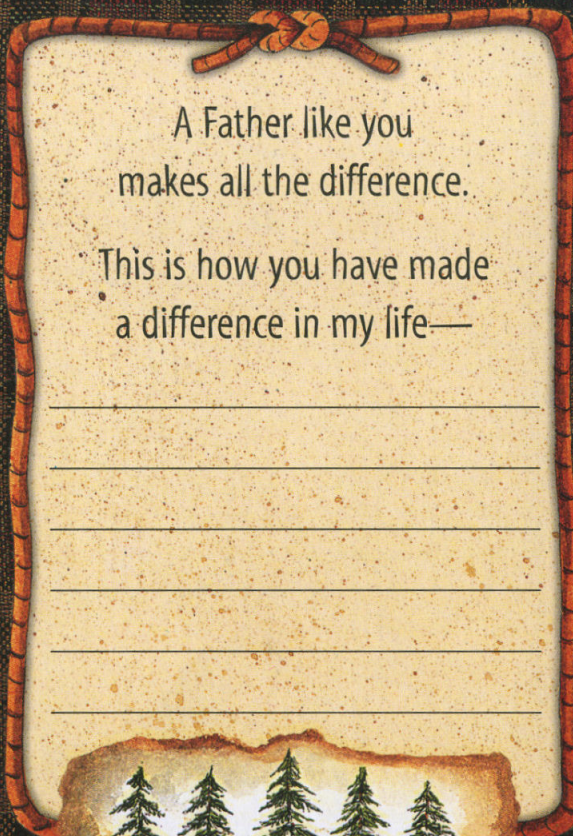

Allegiance is owed
for the freedom we hold;
I learned from your honor of the brave and the bold.

Dad, you taught me to honor these things in life:

Guide me through storms
and sunshine as well—
o'er great waves and gentle winds as through life I sail.

A Father like you
makes all the difference.

This is how you have made a difference in my life—

Celebrate Your Faith

In times of
great need
you've taught me
that prayer
can help to
find comfort
in the good
Lord's care.

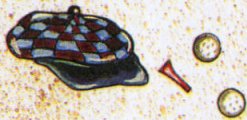

Celebrate Your Talents

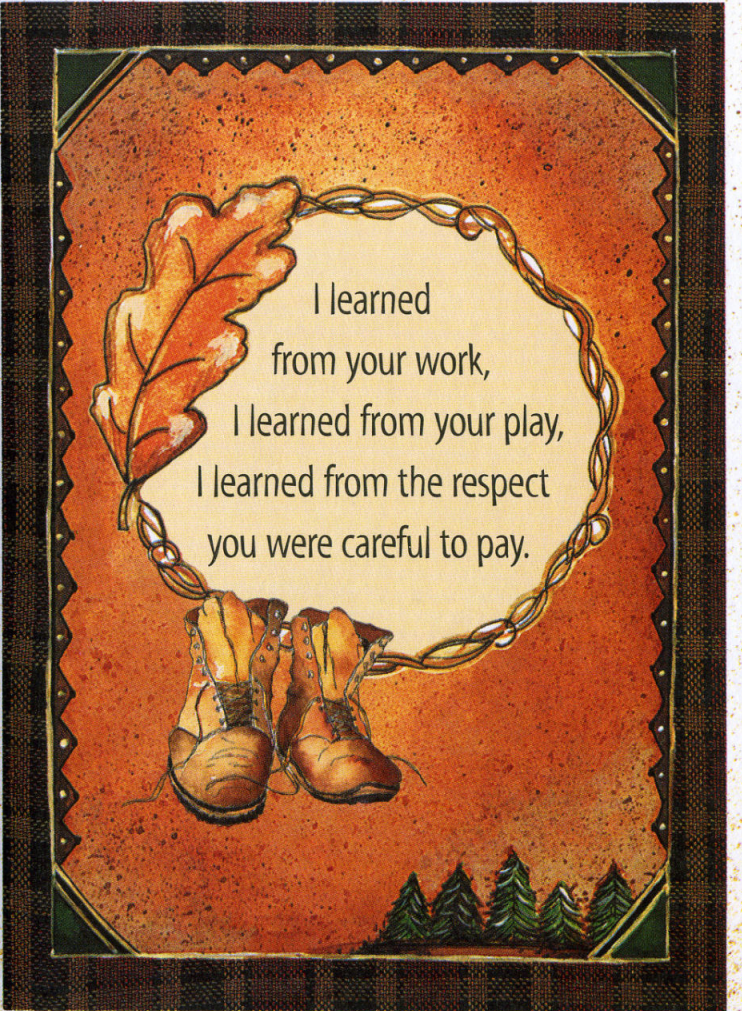

Take time from doing
to enjoy being.

M.H.E.

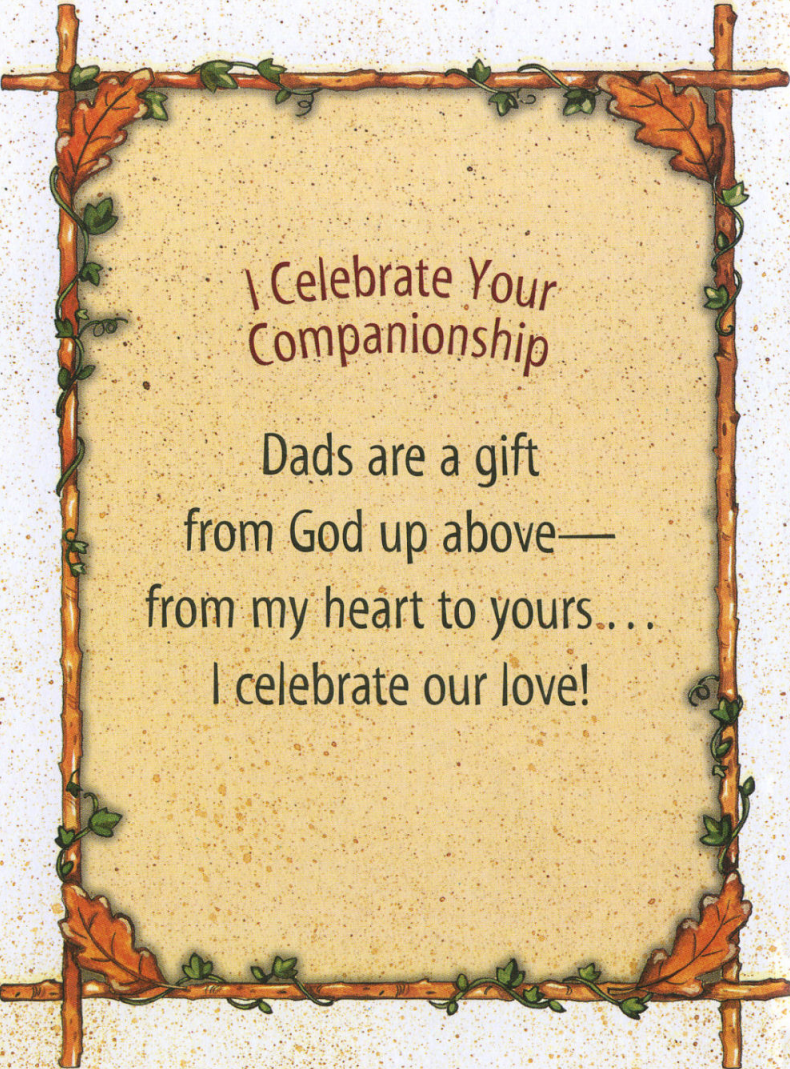

These are some of the things
I enjoy doing with you—

I learned
from your work,
I learned from your play,
I learned from the respect you were careful to pay.

I Celebrate Your Companionship

Dads are a gift
from God up above—
from my heart to yours...
I celebrate our love!

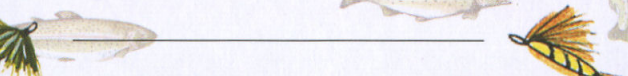

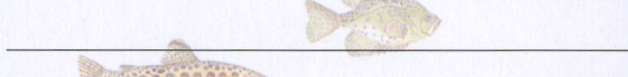

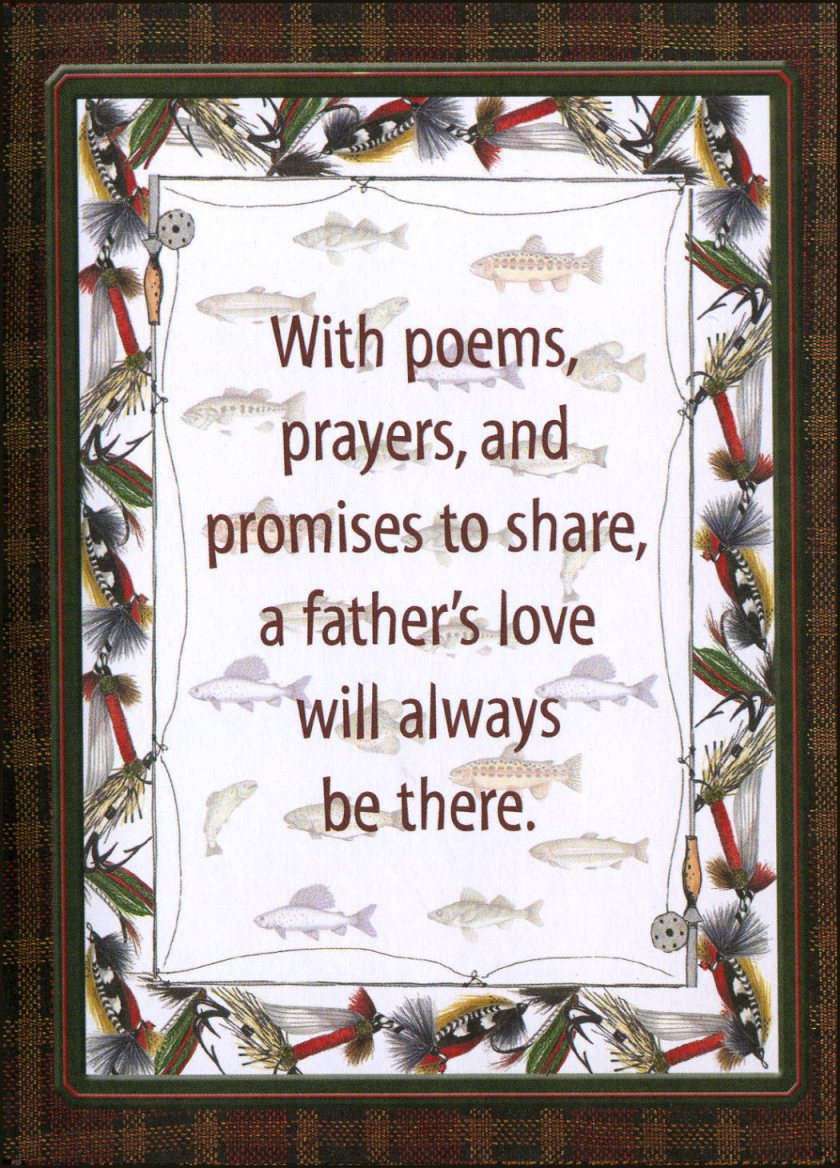

A Father holds
your hand for awhile,
your spirit while he can,
and your heart forever.

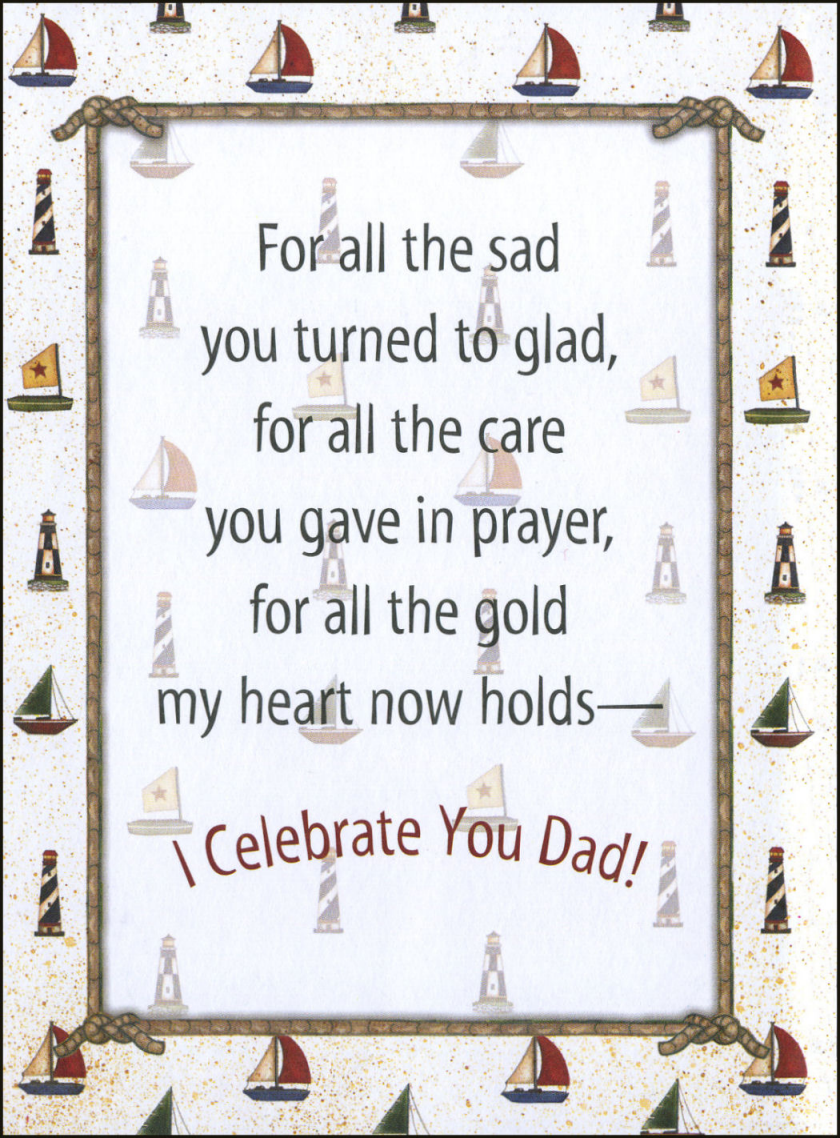

This is my prayer for you, Dad—

With poems,
prayers, and
promises to share,
a father's love
will always be there.

For all the sad
you turned to glad,
for all the care
you gave in prayer,
for all the gold
my heart now holds—

Celebrate You Dad!

A Father's
hug let's you
know you're
always loved
wherever
you go.
