A Bedtime Lullaby

For my children,
remembering our days together
under one wide sky.

To Jessica, Ashlynn, Ceara, Larissa

—T. B.

One wide sky.

Two clouds glide by.

Three songbirds sail the air.

Four fir trees over there.

Five feathers from a nest.

Six zinnias bloom their best.

Seven dump trucks filled with sand.
Eight bumblebees make a band.

Nine clovers for a crown.
Ten whirligigs spinning round.

Nine shadows butter the yard.
Eight fence posts standing guard.

Seven moonflowers open wide.
Six crickets creep inside.

Five lanterns softly glow.
Four gigglers in a row.

Three kisses soft and sweet.

Two sleepyheads off to sleep.

Under...

One wide sky.
