

What Is God Like?

I can't see you, God,
so please give me a clue:
Do you look like me,
and do I look like you?

Are you big or little?

Are you short or tall?

Can you really see me
when I am so small?

Do you like to whisper?

Do you like to shout?

Can you sing or whistle?

I'd like to find out.

Are you strong or gentle?

Are you ever sad?

Do you have a temper
like me when I'm mad?

Where do you live?

In a house in the sky?

How do I know

you are somewhere nearby?

Do you love me always,
or just when I'm good?

I don't always do things
the way that I should.

I have lots of questions
to ask you like these.
I wonder if maybe
you'll answer them, please?

You're looking for answers?

Then here's what to do:

Just turn to the Bible

to find what is true,

And listen to everything

I say to you.

*You won't find a picture
of me in a book.*

There isn't one person who knows how I look.

But don't be upset

that you can't see my face.

You can look at my work

in this beautiful place!

*I've been alive
since before time began;
I made the whole world
by my very own plan.*

I'm as tall as the heavens;

I'm as wide as the sea.

*But even your hairs
are all counted by me.*

*My voice can be gentle
and silent and still,*

*And also like thunder
that roars through the hills.*

I sing with the waves

and the whistling breeze,

*And joining my song
are the hills and the trees.*

*I'm strong as a fortress,
a rock, and a shield,*

*But as gentle as rain
falling softly on fields.*

When you are unhappy that makes me feel sad.

*I'm filled with great joy
when I make your heart glad.*

My anger comes slowly

and fades like the night.

There's no darkness in me,

just goodness and light.

*I live in the world
and in heaven above.*

*I live in the hearts
of my people who love.*

*For I AM the maker
of heaven and earth.
I spoke, and my Word
brought all life into birth.*

*I AM like a mother
who comforts your fears
And tenderly wipes away
all of your tears.*

I AM like a father

who wants to provide,

To care for your needs

and to stay by your side.

*I AM the Creator,
the first and the last,
I'm God of the present,
the future, the past.*

*I AM the good shepherd,
who cares for each lamb.*

*I AM the Almighty,
I AM WHO I AM.*

*I'll love you forever,
whatever you do,
For nothing can separate
my love from you.*

*I've loved everything that I made from the start.
My world and my people
I hold in my heart.*

I AM the Almighty, I AM WHO I AM.

God said, "I am who I am." EXODUS 3:14, TEV

I'll love you forever, whatever you do,
For nothing can separate my love from you.
I've loved everything that I made from the start.
My world and my people I hold in my heart.

Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love?
I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from his love. Death can't, and life can't . . . nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.
